

Grieving

Lord, I can't cry but there is a heaviness in my heart because of my loss. I walk around in automatic pilot mode, smile and thank those who want to comfort me. Inside I am screaming, "No, no, it is too much!" Help me, Lord. Let me lean on you. Give me strength just now when the pain is sharp. Let me put my hand in Yours.

